Movements of Romanian Diplomats in U.S. Restricted

Forbidden to Leave Capitol Area by Order

Must Get Special Permit to Travel

Washington, May 26—(AP)—The United States today clamped tight restrictions on the movement of Romanian diplomats in the United States.

The move was in retaliation for actions taken against the American legation in Bucharest by Romania's Communist government.

Announcing the step at a news conference, undersecretary of state Webb said Romania has been informed that the United States will reduce its official personnel in Bucharest in accordance with a Romanian demand that the staff be slashed to 10 persons.

The travel ban restricts the movements of Romanian Minister Mihail Magheru and his staff to an area of 35 miles around the District of Columbia.

That means the Romanians can travel freely about Washington and the immediate vicinity but must have special permission from the department if they want to go anywhere else in the United States.

This is the first such action taken by the American government against any of the Communist bloc countries, but similar bans may be imposed on other Red satellite diplomats.

Webb said that the treatment of American diplomats in Romania and Czechoslovakia has become so bad that they and the United States may be moving toward a break in relations.

The United States already has broken relations with Bulgaria, another Soviet satellite.

Service Club Makes Program Correction

The Evening Telegraph has been asked by the Service club to make a correction in the patrons and patronesses list appearing in the "Follies" program.

Where the name of Mrs. Waller appears, it should read: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Waller.

Where the names of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Loftus appears, it should read: Mr. and Mrs. John Loftus.

Cache of $34,345 in Loot Is Discovered

Phoenix, Ariz., May 26—(AP)—A $34,345 cache of jewelry stolen in a series of robberies was dug up in the desert south of Reno, Nev., yesterday, police announced here.

Phoenix officers and FBI agents were led to the buried loot by George Booth, a man under investigation for the robberies, police said.

Dr. Yen, Once Chief Of China, Dies at 73

Hong Kong, May 26—(AP)—Dr. W. W. Yen, former premier of China and a veteran diplomat, died this week in Communist Shanghai. Hong Kong newspapers reported today. The 73-year-old retired official died of heart disease.

'Call House' Raid Results In Arrests and 'Black Book'

Chicago, May 26—(AP)—Policemen posing as fun-seeking businessmen raided what they termed a luxurious call flat yesterday. They arrested two women and a man and said they found a small black book listing, among others, the names of three Hollywood notables.

The occupant of the six-room apartment at 2 East Pearson street on the near north side—Miss Nancy Bishop, 24—posted $200 bond for appearance in women's court today on charges of keeping and being an inmate of a disorderly house.

Miss Linda Hill, 22, and Joseph Maxwell, 35, who said he was a New York City businessman, were charged with soliciting and disorderly conduct, respectively. They posted $10 bonds each for court appearance today.

TO HONOR MRS. RALSTON—Mr. Charles Y. Freeman, chairman of the Commonwealth Edison Company, will attend the testimonial dinner here Wednesday, June 7, for Mrs. John G. Ralston, former president of the Reynolds Wire Co. In addition to being chairman of Commonwealth Edison, Mr. Freeman is a director of Public Service Co., of Northern Illinois; Western United Gas and Electric Co., Illinois Northern Utilities Co., Continental National Bank & Trust Co., and Marshall Field & Co. Other notables are expected to attend the testimonial dinner for which 400 reservations are anticipated.

Judge Dixon Rules Youth Committed by Dad's Fraud

A St. Louis mother will take her son home from Dixon State hospital. Circuit Judge George C. Dixon ruled today, because the boy's father had him committed to avoid paying $100 a month.

Fraud has been perpetrated here," Judge Dixon said, at the habeas corpus hearing filed through Merrick and Merrick.

"The father of this boy had him committed through a Kane county court for the purpose of avoiding a $100 payment ordered by a Texas court," he said.

Mother Filed Action
The petition for the release of David C. Grant, 9, was signed by his mother, Mrs. Clara Shumway. In it, she charged that her former husband, E. F. Grant, Eigin, illegally signed commitment papers for the boy.

According to the complaint, she had custody of the child, by order of a Texas court in 1946, and as a Texas court, he said.

Fire Razes Section Of Columbia Studios

Burbank, Calif., May 26—(AP)—A spectacular blaze swept through one section of the Burbank studios of Columbia Pictures Corp. early today, razing a block square area before being brought under control.

No movies were in production at the time. Fire Chief W. J. Taylor declined to estimate the damage pending an inventory of the loss.

Fishing Will Be Good During the Memorial Holiday

Springfield, Ill., May 26—(AP)—Generally good fishing was forecast today for Illinois anglers who test their luck during the Memorial day weekend.

The statewide outlook was appraised by the State Conservation Department on the basis of reports from investigators in 15 districts. "Very good" fishing was predicted in Chicago area waters, provided the weather stays calm. Only in scattered spots were prospects reported poor.

Crappies, bluegills, bullheads and bass were most frequently mentioned as varieties expected to bite good. Investigators recommended minnows and worms for crappie and bluegills, but artificial lures for bass.

Navy Officer Goes on a $19,000 Binge With Blonde

Los Angeles, May 26—(AP)—What would make a navy officer, with 19 years of honorable service, rifle a ship's safe of $19,000 and then blow it all in a wild six-month binge with a blonde?

Lt. Hascom B. Boaz is in the county jail today accused of just that. Broke, he is there in lieu of $10,000 bail awaiting preliminary hearing on federal charges of embezzlement of government funds and desertion from the U. S. navy.

What made the 42-year-old officer do it?

"Domestic trouble started me drinking," he said. Tall, sturdy, and looking very much like a navy officer with his iron gray hair, Boaz said he drank very little before the war but took it up strong after he separated from his wife in 1941. They have two children.

Combat Veteran
He served most of the war on the battleship Idaho in the Aleutians, Gilberts, Marshalls, Saipan and Guam campaigns.

In March of 1949, he said he offered to resign his commission but was retained because of his record. A native of Marion, Tenn., he first enlisted in the navy as an apprentice seaman. His current trouble started last Thanksgiving when he got drunk in a Long Beach hotel and felt the urge to continue the binge.

"I went over to the ship (the navy tanker Navasota) and went aboard. I had a right to. I was the paymaster. I left the ship 20 minutes later, drunk and with $19,201.50, mostly in small bills."

Boaz estimated that he spent $6,000 of the cash on taxi fares. His reason was simple: "I don't drive."

At Fresno, Calif., on the way up to the San Francisco-Oakland area, he picked up blonde Pearl Rosemary Carter. She was with

Denver Covered by 7 Inches of Snow

Denver, May 26—(AP)—Snow covered northern Colorado and Wyoming today.

In Denver, big tree branches, broken by weight of a seven-inch fall, littered the streets. City Forester Earl Sinnamon said 50,000 of the 100,000 trees lining the streets were seriously damaged by the storm. Some of the falling limbs broke power and telephone lines.

Heaviest snow reported was an unofficial 11 inches on U. S. highway 287 near the Colorado-Wyoming line. Snowplows battled to keep main highways open over the mountain passes.

Arrest Engineers in Wreck Killing 12

Prague, Czechoslovakia, May 26—(AP)—Twelve persons were killed and 12 others injured early today, when an express train and a freight train collided in Slovakia. The engineers of both trains were arrested. Officials said their carelessness had caused the collision, which occurred between Zilina and Kosice.

Anti-Gambling Efforts Have Paid-Off, Says Ivan Elliott

Springfield, Ill., May 26—(AP)—Attorney General Ivan Elliott said today he has been hammering at commercial gambling in Illinois for 16 months and that the campaign has "paid off" in most counties.

"In many counties the local officials were most cooperative," Elliott said in a statement.

"Long before the state police raids there was far less commercial gambling in Illinois than in many years," he added.

State police two weeks ago raided two gambling places in Madison county.

Elliott said that shortly after he took office in January, 1949, complaints and requests for action "poured into my office" from counties where commercialized gambling continued to flourish openly. After that, he said, he proceeded but a handful of counties.

Bookmakers Target for Senate Bill

Washington, May 26—(AP)—The senate commerce committee struck at bookmakers today with a bill which would fix criminal penalties for sending or receiving pre-race betting data across state lines on horse and dog races.

As approved, the measure would place strict bans on certain information normally printed in newspapers and broadcast by radios before the start of a race.

What It Defines
The bill—which limits its restrictions to horse and dog racing—defines as illegal:

Information on bets or wages, scratches, jockey changes, weights, probable winners, betting odds, and odds changes transmitted

Plumbers Still Out: Plan Union Meeting

The walkout of 70 journeymen plumbers in local 411 entered its fifth day with the only new move being a meeting of the local. The secretary of Local 411, Arthur Hollander, told The Telegraph that although a meeting is planned, no date or time has been set.

Plumbers and the employers are still 15c apart on a wage issue. Plumbers want $2.40; employers have offered $2.25. The current scale is $2.15.

No further move by the employers was reported.

No Rent Control Confabs Tuesday

The office of The Housing Expediter will be closed, Tuesday, May 30th, in observance of Memorial Day. No representative from the Rent Control office will be in Dixon on that day. Tuesday, June 6, will be the next regular scheduled day in the Dixon area.

WINS 'FOLLIES QUEEN' TITLE—Barbara Cleidon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Cleidon, 123 Chamberlin, last night was declared winner of the queen contest in the Service Club's "Follies." Miss Cleidon had a total of 23,413 votes representing $234.13. Betty Newman was second with 19,955 votes or a total of $199.55. Third place went to Marilyn Cooper with $107.08. Miss Cleidon was sponsored by the Rotary club; Miss Newman by the Amvets and Miss Cooper by the Jaycees. Votes were a penny a piece. Miss Newman was leading up into the stretch but large contributions late yesterday put Miss Cleidon at the top of the list. The Service club realized $728 from the contest.

Three Couples Divorced; One Marriage Lasted Just a Year

Circuit Judge George C. Dixon awarded three divorces today, with one marriage ending precisely a year and a day after it started.

Mrs. Irene Curtis, a registered nurse, Dixon, charged that her husband, George, on one occasion took her to the edge of town and choked, struck, beat her and pulled her hair. Through Warner & Warner, she charged that he threatened to kill her.

She was granted the right to resume her maiden name, Irene Page. They were married May 17, 1949, in Galena, and separated May 18, 1950.

Mrs. Veola Timmons, Amboy, was awarded a divorce from George E. on the ground of cruelty. She was also given the custody of an only child. Her husband was ordered to pay $10 a month support.

They were married in June, 1942, and separated January 30, 1950.

A third divorce went to Francis H. Shilling, a former soldier now working in Washington, D. C. He charged that his wife deserted him after less than four years of married life.

He was given custody of an only child. The address of his wife Mary Ellen, was given as Alameda, Calif.

Zona Steele Asks For Jury Trial on Drunken Charge

Zona Steele, 41, Sterling, asked for a jury trial today through her attorneys, Edward Jones and John O. Shaulis Sr.

County Judge Grover W. Gehant set June 21 as the day when a Lee county court will hear the case.

She was arrested almost a month ago by State Patrolman James Giblin on the Rock Island road near Nelson. She's out on $1,000 bond.

Queen Mother Mary Of England 83 Today

London, May 26—(AP)—Queen Mother Mary celebrated her 83rd birthday with members of the royal family today while greetings poured in from around the world.

Branch To Be Arraigned on Driving Count

Carl Branch, 24, who was shot through the left leg after a wild shooting chase in Amboy a week ago, will be arraigned Saturday morning at 10 o'clock on a charge of reckless driving.

Branch, who'll be defended by William Gunner, will plead guilty or not guilty in Judge Grover W. Gehant's county court.

He was shot by Relief Policeman John Scott when he tried to run away from the officer. The shooting ended an hour-and-a-half chase around Amboy and a search of taverns.

Urges Protestant-Catholic Union to Fight Communism

Boston, May 26—(AP)—A Methodist leader sounded a call today for Protestant-Catholic cooperation to meet the challenge of Communism.

Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam told the Northern Baptist convention that "Communism is an ideology that cannot be bombed out of the heads of men."

"It must be met by an ideology equally dynamic," he said. "Christianity is such an ideology."

The bishop said he hoped the Catholic hierarchy in the United States would soon confer with Protestant brethren on the world situation.

"I am certain," he said, "that the major Protestant denominations would gladly appoint representatives to sit with such leaders as Cardinal Mooney (of Detroit), Cardinal Spellman (of New York), Archbishop Cushing (of Boston) and others."

"Such cooperation," he added, "would electrify the world."

He said, however, that before such a conference "Protestants believe the pope should renounce a new doctrine of religious liberty."

"In a word," he said, "let the Holy father declare that in all matters involving religious liberty the Roman Catholic church will do unto others as it would have others do unto the Roman Catholic church."

'The Landmark' Now Serving on Sundays

"The Landmark," popular eating place in Grand Detour, will be open Sundays starting May 28, it was announced today by Lyle Myers, proprietor. Sunday hours will be from noon until 8 p. m.

"The Landmark" has a new, enlarged dining room—entirely separate from the cocktail lounge. The dining room seats 80 people. Kitchen facilities at "The Landmark" have also been enlarged and improved.

Sea foods—"anything from soft-shell crabs to sword fish," says Lyle, steak and chicken are being featured.

An innovation at "The Landmark" is the serving of daily lunches starting at 11:30 a. m.

Adler, Draper Libel Suit Goes to Jury

Hartford, Conn., May 26—(AP)—The $200,000 libel action brought by entertainers Larry Adler and Paul Draper against a Connecticut woman went to a federal court jury today.

They claim Mrs. Hester E. McCullough of Greenwich, Conn., damaged their reputations by falsely labeling them pro-Communists in sympathy.

Earlier, their lawyer, Frederick H. Wiggins, told the jury "Communism is a slimy, vicious thing, otherwise we would not be seeking relief in this court from being called Communists."

THE JUNIOR AMERICAN LEAGION baseball team will play in Amboy Sunday. Game time is scheduled for 3:00 p. m. at the old Fairgrounds diamond. Coach Orville Brindle asks all boys with uniforms to wear them. Players are to meet at the north side of the court house at two o'clock.

BILL WALKER, OREGON pole vaulter, has decided to enter Northern Illinois college at DeKalb in September. He will compete in both football and track. Walker set a Blackhawk conference record in the pole vault by hitting 10 feet, 7 inches this season.

THE NCIC TENNIS AND GOLF meets get under way in Dixon tomorrow morning. Favorites in these two tournaments haven't been established, but Dixon rates as a strong contender in the tennis meet, and the golfers have been playing an improved brand of link game.

THE WALTON-MORRISON contest played in the Big Six baseball league last Sunday has officially been awarded to Walton. A seventh inning protest sent to league President Chuck Christiansen has been tossed out. The Walton team won 7-6, the scorebook's listing.

JACK SHEEHAN, CHICAGO CUB minor league director, recently wound up a three-month tour of the minor system. Among 50 players he has nominated as future Cubs are two Rock Falls pitchers. Cal and John Howe, both left-handed hurlers, are rated by Sheehan as coming major league players. Cal Howe is with Grand Rapids in the Central league. John Howe is with Springfield, Missouri, of the Western Association.

New York Yankees Now Have Won 13 of Last 14 Contests

Any day now you'll hear the wail: "Break up the Yankees." Thundering through the west with eight straight victories, the world champs head east with a 3 1/2 game lead in the American league.

Casey Stengel's surprising New Yorkers are doing better than the 1949 "miracle team." A year ago today they had a 22-10 record. Now it's 22-8.

High spots of the trip were the three-game sweep in Cleveland and yesterday's 6-4 triumph over Detroit. Oddly enough, it was just a year ago that Tommy Byrne silenced the Tigers for decision No. 22. He went alone that afternoon. Yesterday he needed help from Joe Page in the late innings.

Nobody has stopped the Yankees since their 9-8 loss to Philadelphia May 14. They've swept 13 of 14 and rolled up an amazing road record of 12 victories and only two defeats.

On the contrary, the Boston Red Sox, fence-busters at Fenway Park, barely hobbled out of the west with a 3-5 mark. They almost didn't make it.

It took a grand slam homer by Walt Dropo, topping a six-run rally in the eighth inning for the Red Sox to subdue St. Louis, 13-12. Johnny Pesky helped the cause with five of the 19 hits.

Bob Lemon of Cleveland caught the Washington Senators by the shirt tails and hauled them back into a fourth-place tie with the Tribe. Lemon shut out the Senators with three hits, 3-0. The box score tells the story of Dick Weik's failure. He walked 10 Indians in seven innings.

Homers by Paul Lehner, Sam Chapman and Pete Suder jerked the Philadelphia A's out of their losing ways with a 6-1 victory over Chicago.

Eddie Sawyer's Phillies continued to get fine rookie pitching as Bob Miller, up from Terre Haute, banked Pittsburgh, 3-0, with eight hits. It was the third start and third victory for the 23-year-old right-hander.

Praeger Roe wobbled through the early innings before settling down to make Chicago his fourth victim, 3-4. Gil Hodges drove home the tie-breaking run in the fifth with a single scoring Duke Snider from second base.

Manager Leo Durocher and his second baseman, Eddie Stanky, were chased long before the New York Giants dropped a 13-inning game to the St. Louis Cards, 7-3. Leo and Eddie got the thumb for arguing with umpire Lou Jorda over a called strike in the fifth.

A walk to Red Schoendienst, Stan Musial's single, Johnny Lindell's double and a single by Enos Slaughter broke up the game in the 15th.

Boston and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

Wakefield to See Chandler, Refuses Oaks

Detroit, May 26—(AP)—Outfielder Dick Wakefield stood firm today in his determination not to report to the minor league team which bought him from the New York Yankees yesterday.

Even a telephone call from his new team, the Oakland Oaks of the Pacific Coast league, failed to sway Wakefield from his decision not to play minor league ball.

"I'm going to telephone Baseball Commissioner Happy Chandler and try to find out how this thing stands," said Dick, obviously irked over the Yankees' decision to sell him.

St. Paul, Grace Win at Reynolds Diamond

Third Straight Softball Win For Grace Nine

St. Paul's and First Christian engaged in a slugfest at Reynolds Field last night. St. Paul's was the winner by a 25-17 score.

Grace church continued on its rampage through the league contests. They outscored Bethel 26-4 for their third straight win.

St. Paul's moved ahead in their contest with First Christian after trailing 11-5 at one period in the game. Hill was the hero of the scoring spurge with two doubles in his last two times at bat. Bob Tourtellot was the winning hurler and contributed two hits and three runs toward his cause.

Grace's pitcher, E. Reigle, turned in another of his fine mound performances. He allowed Bethel only four and Lourdeau had two of them. W. Maves had a perfect night at bat for Grace. He punched out five singles in five times at bat and scored all but once after reaching first base. Woodyatt also scored four times for the winners. He led off for the Grace nine and hit a home run to left field.

Tragedy Behind Ernie Pyle's Career Told by Best Friend

Ernie Pyle wrote stories that never took down a note. Each drew tears and laughter from millions, but never did he have such material as the tragic facts his own troubled life now make in the hands of his best friend and newspaper colleague, Lee G. Miller. In the second in a series of four articles for a national magazine, in which he reveals for the first time the intimate story of this sad little man, Mr. Miller tells of the alternating despair and hope with which Ernie watched the gradual breakdown of his best traveling companion, his wife, and the courage with which he faced a continuous round of trips in search of new stories—Central America, Hawaii, South America, Alaska, and finally London during the fearful days and nights of 1940-41.

"A break came in his trip to Hawaii when he was permitted to visit the Kalaupapa leper colony on the island of Molokai. Here he met a little old French priest, Father Peter, who had caught the disease and been cured by a prompt operation.

"Ernie found that he could comprehend the self-sacrifice of Father Peter. For I myself wandered into the foothills of martyrdom, Poamung Kalaupapa. I experienced an acute feeling of spiritual need to be no better off than the leper. My feeling will likely impress you as ridiculous fiction. But I did experience it. The emotion was an adventure in desire, and I am glad that I have had it. But I am glad also that I must go on. For I know that in real life I am a 'sprint' martyr; the long, steady pull is not for me."

"Ernie's worries about Jerry seemed to disappear after his return to Honolulu. He must have sensed, even then, that what disturbed her from time to time was something deeper than any mere drink-craving, and he was ever hopeful that, whatever it was, it would work itself out.

"Ernie left Jerry at Albuquerque and set off—with Shaffer—for a tour in almost uninhabited desert country in New Mexico, Arizona, Utah and Colorado.

"Shaffer subsequently wrote two articles about his experiences with Ernie, wherein he said in part:

"People in out-of-the-way places are slow to warm up to strangers. But not once did we leave a place where someone wasn't hanging on the car door, talking to Ernie and hating to see him go.

While I was with him he talked to scores of people about almost as many different things. And he

"In London in 1940 he wrote Jerry. It has been very quiet since I came. There wasn't a plane over the first two nights. But undoubtedly will be plenty when and if they start coming close. Of course I haven't seen much of London yet, but they've cleaned everything up so beautifully that it seems much better than I thought. I supposed I'll be accused of being taken in by the British, but their spirit is just almost unbelievable."

"Twenty nights after Ernie's arrival the furious fire-bombing of December 29 occurred. Ernie wire-lessly:

"Some day when peace has returned to this old world I want to come to London again and stand on a certain balcony on a moonlit night and look down upon the peaceful silver curve of the Thames with its dark bridges. And standing there, I want to tell somebody who has never seen it how London looked on a certain night in the holiday season of the year 1940.

"For on that night this old, old city—even though I must bite my tongue in shame for saying it—was the most beautiful night I have ever seen. It was a night when London was ringed and stabbed with fire.

"You have all seen big fires, but I doubt if you have ever seen the whole horizon of a city lined with great fires—scores of them, perhaps hundreds. There was something inspiring in the savagery of it."

Sullivan of Amboy A Public Guardian

Springfield, Ill., May 26—(AP)—Edward M. Sullivan, Amboy, was one of 58 public guardians appointed today in 58 Illinois counties by Governor Adlai Stevenson.

The appointments are for terms ending in December, 1953, and are subject to senate approval at the 1951 legislative session.

Sullivan will have the power of a natural guardian over minors without parents or close relatives to administer their affairs.

Even U. S. Senators Have a 'Bad Day' Once in a While

By JAMES MARLOW
Washington, May 26—(AP)—Senators seem to charm themselves and one another with what they have to say. They sit talking or listening to one another for hours.

And when one of them slips in a high-level word, the others usually nod and never bat an eye. This week it was different. All in one day they had dictionary trouble and trouble with one another.

Senator Aiken, the mild and kindly Republican from Vermont, was reading from a memorandum by the government's Budget Bureau. What the man who wrote the memo was trying to say was this:

If the senate wiped out a certain minor government agency, the people there would be unhappy and pretty shaky about finding another government job. That would have been the simple way to say it.

But the Budget Bureau man wasn't simple, so what he actually said was this: If the agency was wiped out, the workers there would suffer an "exacerbation of that sense of isolation and insecurity."

Demand Definition

At that point Senator Cain, the Washington Republican who used to be a paratrooper, landed on his feet. He told Aiken he wanted to know how to spell "exacerbation" so he could look it up in a dictionary.

Aiken had to spell it twice for him. In a wink and a nod Cain was back on his feet with information. He said the dictionary said:

"Exacerbation: The act of exacerbating or the state of being exacerbated; increased severity, as in the symptoms of a disease."

"He might have added, but didn't, that the dictionary also says exacerbate means to irritate or make bitter. So, apparently, the Budget Bureau man meant the workers would be irritated if they lost their jobs."

The senate had hardly passed through this semantic crisis when a senator Tom Connally, the Texas Democrat who has some white hair and a lot of sarcasm, got up.

He asked the senate to approve President Truman's point four program—giving skilled Americans help to backward countries. Right there Senator Taft got on his feet to protest.

Taft, the Ohio Republican, said he thought Connally was asking the senate to approve the program as a "matter of course."

Texas vs. Ohio

This must have exacerbated Connally because the Texan replied: "The Senator from Texas (meaning himself) did no such thing, notwithstanding the supererogation of the distinguished Senator from Ohio who seems to know more about less than any one else I know."

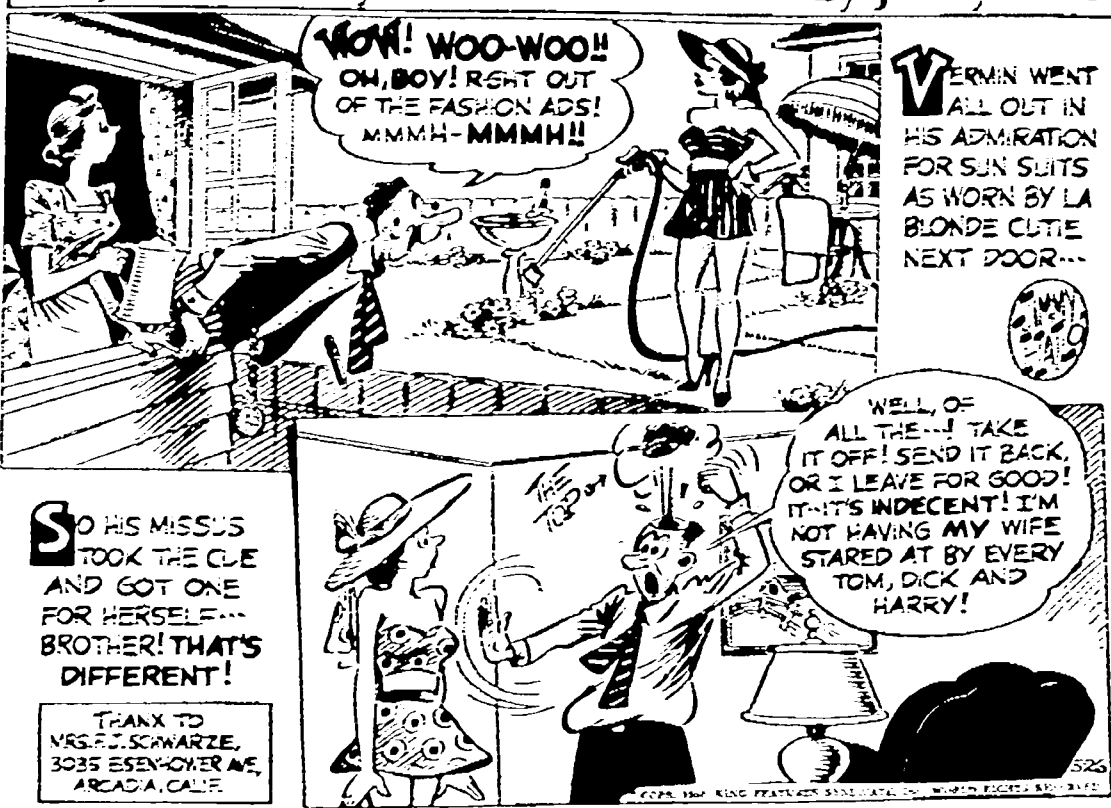

"Supererogation" in turn must have exacerbated Taft because he was back on his feet, demanding: "What does the Senator mean by 'supererogation'? I want an explanation of the term."

There are various dictionary definitions for supererogation—such as "to perform in excess, to pay out, over and above..." But Connally brushed them all aside without mentioning them. He said:

"The Senator (meaning Taft) can look in the dictionary for it. I do not have time to educate the Senator from Ohio."

Church Leaders See Strong Religious Revival in Vets

The God that many servicemen found in foxholes, they have taken with them into their postwar lives. This has led to a spectacular increase in church attendance among young veterans and their wives and to a revitalization of religion, says Selwyn James. After interviewing hundreds of church leaders and parishioners, he points, in a national magazine for June, to the experiences of the First Community Church of Columbus, Ohio, and its energetic minister, Dr. Roy Burkhardt.

"Ministers in several key localities readily admit that adult young folk now constitute the wellspring of religious activity, and have even created totally new patterns of church life. 'Yet a decade ago young married people represented what dismayed clergymen called 'a lost generation.' As a matter of fact, a census survey of 1,149 churches disclosed that only 173, or fifteen per cent, had recognized that young adults, married and single, fell naturally and normally into a group by themselves."

"As one well-known churchman puts it, 'Today the alert pastor must use all the resources of sociology, psychology and psychiatry, church history and prayer, if he expects to hold the attention of young marrieds.'"

"Most religious authorities today agree that a prime reason for past cynicism on the part of many young people toward church-going was the church's former disproportionate emphasis on the Hereafter, and on fanciful concepts of Heaven and Hades, and its nearly dividing life into air-tight compartments of which the church dealt only with the religious."

"Nowadays nearly all faiths point out that a successful church is also one that helps young people to grow. It must help them achieve emotional maturity so that they face up to life's vicissitudes and endow them with a sense of spiritual well-being which allows them to function without smoldering inner tension."

"Some of the more advanced young-adult programs in America's houses of worship are modeled on the pioneering efforts of the First Community Church in Columbus, Ohio. Under the inspired leadership of a tireless fifty-year-old pastor named Roy Burkhardt, it has imbued in its 5,000 members a spirit of Christian fellowship which many visiting clergy say is unmatched anywhere in the U.S."

"The magnet that draws so many young adults to the First Community Church is the broad program of social service and cultural activity. It includes a little-theater movement, literary and art groups, Young Couples' Circles, social-action groups, a summer camp, a nursery and kindergarten for the children. A vocational-guidance service is open all hours of the day; so is a family counseling ministry which gives special attention to engaged couples and newlyweds. Yet through all these seemingly nonreligious pursuits the spirit of Christian brotherhood runs like a silver thread. "No wonder Dr. Karl Menninger, director of the Menninger Psychiatric Institution, says of the First Community Church program, 'It is the finest example of organized mental hygiene I have ever encountered.'"

Indict Three More at K. C.

Kansas City, May 26—(AP)—A federal grand jury today indicted three more henchmen of the late Charles Binaggio on income tax evasion charges.

Those indicted were Walter L. Rainey, a gambler; Samuel Goldberg, and John Mangiaracina.

Last Monday the grand jury returned income tax evasion indictments against Samuel C. Hayden, former assistant Jackson county prosecutor, and Tano Lococo known as an enforcer for the Kansas City underworld. Hayden was a former member of the state legislature. In an interim report, the jury charged he was interested in a $34,000,000 a year gambling organization in the county.

All of the men indicted today and Lococo were associated with Binaggio, a northside Democratic leader who was slain April 5 with Charles Gargotta, his ex-convict muscleman.

Today's indictment charged Goldberg had not even bothered to make income tax returns for the years 1947-1948, although it said he had a gross income in those years of $68,631.

The indictments also charged Rainey with making net income reports of $16,241.15 for 1946-47-48 and it should have been $31,647.88.

Mangiaracina also faced three counts for the same years which the government charges he made net income reports of $13,575.72 and it should have been $35,610.71. Goldberg was indicted on five counts two for failure to make a return for the years 1947 and 1948 when the government claims he made a gross of $68,321.41. It also indicted him on charges of income tax evasion for the years 1946, 1947 and 1948, claiming he had received income of $70,631.41 and owes the government $25,200.02 in unpaid taxes.

Lost With Knetzer; Man Found Shot Dead

Belleville, Ill., May 26—(AP)—John O. Bopp, 50, one of many who lost financially in the bankruptcy of Robert Knetzer, Edwardsville auto dealer, was found shot to death in the garage at his home here yesterday. A shotgun lay nearby.

His widow told police he had been brooding over his loss of $1,650 paid to Knetzer for a new car two years ago. She said he was also upset over the arrest of his brother, Harlan, an East St. Louis druggist who was fined $2,000 Wednesday for violation of the pure food and drug act.

John Bopp was a chauffeur. Gold was so plentiful during early colonization of Honduras, that ranchers used the precious metal to shoe horses.

State Okeh's Seven to Lee Welfare Group

L. W. Miller of 1510 Third street, former county superintendent of schools, was among seven citizens of Dixon appointed by the Illinois Public Aid Commission to the eight-man welfare service committee for Lee county following recommendations of the county board of supervisors, it was announced at Springfield today.

Also named was Everett Barnes, supervisor of Amboy township. They will advise the commission on the administration of public aid programs in the county. These include old age pensions, blind assistance, aid to dependent children and general assistance (relief).

Other members of the committee from Dixon are Byron LaFever, 1006 Galena avenue, grocer; Dr. J. M. Lund, 115 Fifth street, physician and surgeon; Clarence Elliott, 216 First street, co-owner of the Mellott Furniture Co.; Edwin W. Merrick, 121 Galena avenue, attorney and probation officer; Albert Ruggles, 811 College avenue, Veterans' Administration officer, and Mrs. George B. Shaw, 100 Dement avenue.

Miller was formerly chairman of the public aid advisory committee for the county which is being succeeded by the new welfare service group. All but Barnes also were members of the former advisory group.

The new group, created by the public assistance code passed by the last general assembly, may also recommend and develop community welfare programs, and survey economic and social welfare conditions and employment opportunities in the county with a view toward helping needy persons become self-supporting.

Committee members serve without pay.

Scout Murder Theory In Death of Farmer

Table Grove, Ill., May 26 (AP)—McDonough county authorities are seeking to learn whether the shotgun death of a prosperous farmer near here was murder or accident.

The body of Lawrence Russell, 61, was found in his home yesterday by two neighbors who had missed him from his usual haunts. Coroner V. V. Roberts said Russell had been shot in the chest with a shotgun. The gun was lying about six feet from the body. The coroner estimated Russell had been dead three or four days.

Reports said there were no indications of robbery or indications of a struggle.

Russell's wife, Mary, has been away about a week, visiting her mother, Mrs. Della Jones, in Canton. A son, Verne, resides at Indus.

Boy Missing After State Park Outing

Ottawa, Ill., May 26 (AP)—LaSalle county authorities are seeking a 14 year old Chicago boy missing after a school outing yesterday at Starved Rock State park. Sheriff Edward T. Ryan said the boy, Carl Ignarski, may have fallen into the Illinois river while trying to climb a cliff wall.

Carl was one of 60 pupils from St. Stanislaus school who came to the park for the picnic yesterday. Companions said the boy was last seen near Lover's Leap, a cliff on the south side of the river. Ryan said he found marks resembling prints on the cliff about 26 feet above the water.

Mexican Millionaire's Daughter Kidnapped

Mexico City, May 26 (AP)—Two men kidnapped the six-year-old daughter of a millionaire movie house operator yesterday and left a note demanding $15,000 ransom in gold.

The child, Norma Granat, was watched as she and her nurse left the home of her father, Samuel Granat, owner of a chain of movie houses. The men gave the nurse a ransom demand then drove off with the child.

CHOW DOWN Stretching for that next bite of breakfast are these three baby robins, whose home is a nest on the bedroom window sill in the home of Jerome Celico, of Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Robin doesn't know it, but her choice of a nestmate has prevented the Celicos from opening the window or putting up a screen. Not until the babies are flying size will they be evicted.

U. S. Arms Shipments Get to Europe Despite Red Activity

By SIGRID ARNE

The Communists seem to have lost another skirmish in the cold war in Europe.

They set out the first of the year to stop shipments of American arms to Europe. They banked European labor unions to do the job. Nothing but the Communist-dominated labor front would play ball Europe is getting the weapons on schedule.

The U. S. Labor Department tells the story in the March issue of "Labor Abroad."

Most of the trouble occurred in France and Italy.

In both countries Communist-led unions started with a "peace of offensive," telling workers that the way to insure peace was to refuse to handle American arms.

Argument failed. When that argument failed in France, the Communists began a flood of short strikes for higher pay, conspicuously among workers needed to shore up French defenses.

In both countries enough union people have grown so tired of the sabotage of Communist leaders that new anti-Communist unions have been formed.

These unions still want better wages, but they also take into account the security of their nations.

Rent Control Office Help Given Notices

Chicago, May 26 (AP)—All federal rent office employees in the Chicago region are getting dismissal notices today, but many will be hired back again for at least a few more weeks.

Oscar G. Abern, regional housing expert, announced this yesterday. His territory includes nine midwestern and western states.

Abern said dismissals are effective June 6 but that 234 of the 583 employees in the region will be rehired and will work through June 30 at least. The rent law expires June 30.

Abern said the staff cuts have to be made now because of lack of funds to pay the present total. Proportionate cuts have been ordered throughout the country, he said.

Congress is considering a bill to extend rent control.

Many scientists classify this as an era of electronics, successor to the industrial turnover that came in the previous decade.

In France the battle is between the Communist-led CGT (General Confederation of Labor) and two free unions, FO (Workers Force) and CFTC (French Confederation of Christian Workers).

In Italy the battle lies between the Communist-led CGIL (Italian General Confederation of Labor) and the anti-Communist LCGIL (Free Italian General Confederation of Workers) and FIL (Italian Federal of Labor).

In both countries the leaders of these new unions must have done a noble job of quick education on international issues. They work among people who live a great deal less comfortably than Americans in comparable jobs.

Strikes failed. In France the Communists' shift from "peace" to more wages took place in February. They called short strikes on railroads and in mines. The strikes failed. The non-Communist trade union people refused to go along.

In Italy the Communists had some few successes in the northern ports, but they were stopped in such big southern ports as Naples and Bari.

Recent reports say arms were unloaded in Norway, Denmark and the Netherlands "without incident."

Report One Killed As Prisoners Riot

Manila, May 25 (AP)—A riot broke out in the big Muntinlupa prison, 15 miles south of Manila, shortly after noon today.

First reports said nine prisoners and one constabularyman had been killed and many were wounded.

Michigan was separated from Indiana Territory in 1805.

BEAUTIFUL CHAPEL HILL

Proves to this and all other communities that private enterprise can accomplish more than politically operated enterprises, whether they be cemeteries, public utilities or otherwise.

CHAPEL HILL presents to this community this Memorial Day in 1950 the beautiful "Lord's Supper Memorial," completely paid for at a cost of thousands of dollars through income from sources developed by the cemetery management.

CHAPEL HILL also presents to this and surrounding communities the perfect cemetery - free of indebtedness - with a trust fund of over $22,000.00 - full complement of the finest new equipment that money can buy to maintain it - and above all

Methodist Church Remembers Graves Of Other Pastors

In a special service on Sunday afternoon May 21, members of the First Methodist church of Dixon met at Oakwood cemetery to decorate the graves of former Methodist ministers and their families as well as the graves of some of the men and women who founded the First Methodist church in Dixon. The service was in charge of the pastor, Aura C. Nesmith, assisted by a committee from the Wesleyan Society composed of Mrs. H. J. Schumacher, Mrs. L. W. Feik and Mrs. John Wadsworth.

The following graves were decorated: The infant son of Thomas North, past of this church 1850-1852; The Reverend John Williams, The Reverend Gilbert Starvel, The Reverend Louis E. Dennis, a local preacher of the Methodist church; The Reverend Oscar F. Ayers, a local preacher in Dixon from 1839-1883, and a member of the Board of Trustees at the time of the dedication of The First Church, May 1, 1843.

The occasion of this service was the observance of Ministers' Memorial Sunday which is set aside by the churches of the Rock River Conference for the recognition of the service of deceased members of the Conference.

On next Sunday the committee will decorate the grave of the Reverend John W. Davidson, who is buried in Sugar Grove cemetery.

Why Hudson, with exclusive recessed floor, is America's Safest Car!

HUDSON
An exclusive recessed floor ("step-down" design) results in America's lowest center of gravity (and full road clearance) for road-hugging stability and the ease of control that helps prevent accidents. Passengers ride down within a rugged foundation frame. Box section steel ground seats and protect passenger compartment, even outside rear wheels.

OTHER CARS
The floor is placed on top of the frame. The result is a much higher center of gravity, with passengers seated in a less stable area of the car. Frame does not furnish protection around passenger compartment. Seats are narrower, room for free movement while driving is less.

HUDSON
MOST ROOM! BEST RIDE! SAFEST!
The new, Lower-Priced Pacemaker brings you all of Hudson's exclusive advantages for just a few dollars more than the lowest-priced cars!

Hudsons, with recessed floors, their great array of high quality, long life features, and advanced design, are leaders in resale value, as shown by Official Used Car Guide Book!

Attend the Church of Your Faith Regularly

They might not bring down the house at Carnegie Hall. But they'll win an encore at Vacation Bible School. Theirs is the kind of singing in which spirit and enthusiasm count. When you're singing "Jesus Loves Me" a few flat notes don't matter.

Even after these happy weeks at Vacation Bible School they won't be ready for a Metropolitan audition. But their young lives will be richer in the qualities that make for happiness and moral health.

Our boys and girls deserve the opportunities which our churches offer them. They need the goodtimes and helpful training that have made Vacation Bible School an American tradition.

Encourage your youngsters to attend!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Whatever obscurities may involve religious tenets, humility and love constitute the essence of true religion; the humble is formed to adore, the loving to associate with eternal love.—Lavater.

A Century of Change

The other day in a far western city a large department store celebrated its 100th anniversary. As part of its display, it emphasized some of the contrasts between life at the time of its founding and now. A scrubbing board was shown next to a modern washing machine, and so on.

During that century, most of the productive facilities of this country have been created—the famed mass-production factories which pour out goods of every conceivable kind in an almost bewildering abundance. And, along with that, we have seen the growth and improvement of an equally important element—mass distribution. It is obvious that mass production would be of little value if there were not a highly efficient method of placing the goods in the hands of millions of consumers in every corner of the country. That is mass distribution's vital job.

It is a job that has been well done. It was pioneered largely by the chain systems, which came up with the idea of big turnover and small individual profits. The independent stores have followed the chains' lead in this and added many a worthwhile innovation of their own. And so, even in the little villages, the consumer is offered a wide selection of goods—at minimum prices.

At the heart of this century of vast progress has been the force of competition. It built the producing and distributing industries alike. And in building them, it built America's living standards, too.

We Still Have the War Taxes

The house ways and means committee has voted to make certain downward revisions in the wartime excise taxes. As an example, it halved the 20 per cent admission tax on tickets to entertainments, and did the same thing with the tax on luggage. Other commodities and services came in for some relief.

This is a step in the right direction, but it is not the end of the matter, whether or not the current congress takes further action. The maintenance of these taxes, regardless of the percentage figure, is a breach of faith now that the war is long over. They are not "luxury" taxes. Applying as they do to commercial passenger transportation, a long list of commodities including baby oil and the most inexpensive cosmetics, they fall on many absolute necessities—and, for the most part, they are paid by people of small or moderate means.

It must not be forgotten that these taxes were strictly part of a wartime emergency legislation. They were imposed, not only for revenue reasons, but to discourage the manufacture and use of anything that did not contribute to the war effort. They came into being, in other words, at a time when it was necessary to sharply reduce civilian living standards and habits.

Now, with the shooting war over, the continuance of these business-hurting taxes—with their adverse effects on employment and trade—is inexcusable.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Feet Should Be Kept Dry To Ward Off Athlete's Foot

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

The hands, feet (especially between the toes), groin and scalp, are favorite locations for ringworm (athlete's foot). The first sign of trouble is likely to be blistering, scaling, lumps, cracking or callous-like lesions of the skin. In the groin it usually begins as a flattened reddish and slightly raised area of the skin. Itching is common. It is caused by a fungus of which there are several varieties.

A great many people have mild fungus infections which they do not recognize as such. This often consists of slight scaling and sometimes mild itching between the toes. Most areas favor the growth of these fungi.

For prevention of dermatophytosis, the following has been recommended by the Council on Pharmacy and Chemistry of the American Medical Association.

"1. Keep the feet clean and dry, with special attention to places between the toes. Dry these carefully but not so hard as to irritate the skin.

2. Air shoes and socks when not in use.

3. Under special conditions, keep the feet elevated when at rest (where the conditions predispose to intertrigo (between the toes), as with marching soldiers).

4. Shoes should be selected that are as light and well aerated as is compatible with working conditions.

5. A dusting powder consisting of 10 per cent boric acid in powdered talc should be dusted on the feet and between the toes every night and morning."

The value of foot baths as a preventative seems to be slight. Contrary to what was formerly believed, sodium hyposulphite foot baths in swimming pools, locker rooms and the like, has not proved of much value.

CURE OUTLINED

For treatment, the following has been suggested as the policy to follow:

"1. Only the mild lesions that occur between the toes should be treated by the patient himself; that is, where the lesions exhibit only scaliness and perhaps mild redness and fissuring. Considerable redness, moisture, pustule formation or pain call for the attention of the physician and the physician only. The patient must err on the safe side.

2. Such mild cases can be treated as follows:

(a) Observe regulations just laid down for prophylaxis (prevention).

(b) Nothing is safe as a local application except the boric acid foot powder mentioned under prophylaxis. If there is not any improvement within two weeks, consult a physician."

Dr. Jordan will answer questions from his readers in a special column once a week. Watch for it.

IN HOLLYWOOD

By ERSKINE
JOHNSON
NEA Staff
Correspondent

Hollywood—the suicide jinx connected with Henry Fonda's Broadway hit, "Mr. Roberts," has Linda Christian concerned over the idea of Ty Power doing the play in London this fall. Long before Mrs. Henry Fonda ended her life, the play's author, Thomas Heggen, took the same grim highway. . . . Elizabeth Taylor's parents are letting Nick Hilton worry now. They are cutting loose by taking dancing lessons at Arthur Murray's Hollywood studio. Raising glamorous Liz from a pup wasn't exactly a minuet.

Red Skelton has only a year and a half to go on his MGM contract and he's beaming like a movie popcorn salesman. Red will ankle the MGM lot as fast as a jet job to accept one of eight fabulous TV offers already waiting for him.

Shelley Winters was flat on the floor of a western saloon. Marie Windsor just clipped her on the chin in their big fight scene in U's "Frenchie."

Marie was out of breath and the camera was out of film.

Shelley adjusted a black velvet dress and quipped:

"You know, I'm never vertical in a picture. I guess I'm just a horizontal actress."

Shelley and Marie. Shelley's double and Marie's double, Betty Danko. Shelley's boy friend, Farley Granger and Marie's boy friend, Alex Runciman. There were almost as many participants as spectators.

Shelley and Marie sat on ladders, with the boy friends standing behind 'em, and watched their doubles fight it out in the long shots amidst cracks like: "I bet your double can lick my double" and "I bet my boy friend can lick your boy friend."

Then Shelley and Marie went in for the close-ups, with the camera first concentrating on Shelley in a prone position. Shelley seemed to be enjoying herself. She looked up from the polished hardwood and winked:

"Some floor show, huh?"

Harold Lloyd, Sr. and Junior are planning to do a movie together when senior completes his year's term as Shrine potentate. . . . The state of Florida has quietly placed on its statute books a law providing state funds for the building of film studios for leasing to producers. For the filming of theater or TV movies?

Hal Wallis purchased radio writer Parke Levy's novel, "December Bride." Next day Parke sent him a kidding note: "Since becoming a novelist I have decided on a name more in keeping with my profession—Algonquin DeBris." Strange how stars can get together when they want to. Most of the town's top names are contributing their services to the Actors Company to raise funds for a legitimate theater in Hollywood.

Gregory Peck is president, Gene Kelly and Rod Russell vice presidents and Charles Boyer secretary. They've already raised $90,000.

NOT SO FAST

Janet Leigh and her-to-millions Arthur Lowe, Jr., are yelling about the match-makers who keep shoving them toward the altar. Blushing Janet told me: "Really, much more has been made of this than what actually happens to be true. There's nothing definite."

Janet will turn twinkles-toes for RKO's "Two Tickets to Broadway," even doing a routine with the Charivels, the sensational French trio who hurtle through space like Walt Disney characters. Janet is being rehearsed by Margie and Gower Champion and pants:

"I'm weary I'll have to take to wearing bandages instead of shoes."

If you've been wondering about that proposed movie titled "Los Angeles—5 P.M.," it's about home-bound husbands getting mixed up with cuties at cocktail bars. . . . Lucille Ball says she wants husband Dezi Arnez opposite her when the radio show, "My Favorite Husband," hits the TV tubes.

Producer Frank Ross, who starred Wife No. 1—Joan Arthur—in "The Devil and Miss Jones," will star Wife No. 2—Joan Caulfield—in a musical version of same. Just to add further irony, it was Joan who suggested Joan for the remake just before Joan became Mrs. Frank Ross.

Junks Garish Ties, Takes $150 in Suits

Chicago, May 26—(AP)—A robber who likes to dress, as well as work, in a quiet fashion collected $150 in a near north side men's clothing store. He carried long enough to snatch two garish ties from a rack, fling them into a waste basket, and comment: "Junk."

How Much and Where Did He Get It?

Abundant Living

By
E. STANLEY JONES

Luke 11:9-13; Acts 19:1-7

RECHARGING RUNDOWN BATTERIES

We have been meditating upon our resources for abundant living, and have found that the chief resource is the Holy Spirit. When Jesus said, "How much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?" Luke translated his words as "the Holy Spirit to them that ask him"—"the Holy Spirit" is the "good things." Seek then, not "good things," but go beyond the good things to their Source, the Holy Spirit.

A little boy, when asked what the Holy Spirit means, replied, "I suppose it is what puts the 'umph' in Christianity." He is, but very much more. For He puts everything—everything which a Christian needs for abundant living—into Christianity.

A minister said in one of our meetings: "I have a rundown battery that needs recharging. Can the Holy Spirit recharge rundown batteries?"

A policeman went over to an oil well and deliberately oiled it, for it was squeaking badly, and visitors would not believe that it was an oil well when it itself was not oiled. Can the Holy Spirit put oil into the machinery of the Christian worker's own life while he is trying to pump oil for others? Unless our own machinery is well-oiled and smooth-running, people will not believe that we have oil for others. How can we lift others to a far life if we are living under par? A girl came home from college saying, "I just needed the inspiration of the family life." She was inspirationally run down, needed recharging. That is what we need spiritually. We are not bad, but empty.

"Lord, I would share,

But first possess.

That inner gift, serenity.

Then, comforted, blessed, free from unrest,

Serve Thee none the less,

But with Tranquility."

I come now, O Spirit of God, to have my inmost being renewed and recharged. Teach me how to gear in with Thy power, how to lay hold of Thy resources, how to align myself with Thy purposes, how to surrender to Thee. For I cannot go on running a stalling car, working on half its cylinders. I would be adequate for any hill, for any load, for any distance. Help me. Amen.

Husband Can Be Different In Public, If You Let Him

Any wife who ever wondered why her husband, who may be rather a dull fellow at home, can shine so when he gets out in a crowd can find the answer in a discussion of family life made by Andre Maurois in his book, "The Art of Living."

"One can be one's self in the family circle. Yes, but it is not possible to be anyone else in that intimate atmosphere; one cannot rise above one's self. . . . The members of a family may not understate a genius in their midst, but they minimize him by their manner of appreciating, which is not understanding but delighting in the fact that there is such a man in the family."

That is the way it is and must be within the family circle. But some women carry that understanding of their husbands beyond the family circle and then it is hard on a man's ego.

Mrs. Jones can't let Mr. Jones tell a story without adding into the limelight, adding little touches, contradicting a statement, or explaining that John had taken a few liberties with the facts in order to make a more amusing story.

DULLS HUSBAND'S PRIDE IN SUCCESS

Mrs. Smith does her underestimating in another way. She isn't content to let Mr. Smith shine as the success he has become. She must always be reminding his audience of how it was along the way, when she was pinching pennies and still having a hard time to make ends meet. Mr. Smith can't shine in all his present splendor, even away from home, because his wife keeps bringing up the past.

Mrs. Brown "tells all" and so keeps Mr. Brown from ever "rising above himself." She shares with anyone who wants to listen to all of Mr. Brown's peculiarities, the way he is such a baby when he is sick with nothing worse than a cold, and so forth. Mr. Brown hasn't any chance at all to "rise above himself" when Mrs. Brown is along.

Letting a husband "rise above himself" when he is with others is one of the surest ways of helping him to feel pleased with himself—and glad to have his wife around.

Singapore's Jilted Lovers Die in Agony

Singapore, May 26—(AP)—Singapore's favorite poison potion is caustic soda. Not because it costs 20 (Straits) cents a dose and can be purchased without difficulty, but because jilted lovers prefer to die in agony to inspire severe remorse in the ones who rejected them, say authorities.

HELP AMVET AUXILIARY

To The Editor:

Polio is on the increase! Every day new cases are being reported throughout the country. Dixon is not immune. Realizing this and desirous of accomplishing something worth while for the community, the Amvets auxiliary post 123 has chosen for its project the purchase of an iron lung, in order to establish a fund, the auxiliary, with the able assistance of Jack Kennehan and his talented Paradedettes, produced "Paradedettes on Review." This performance was given at the Dixon high school auditorium on Sunday, April 22. As a result of this first project and including ticket sales, program ads and small donations, the auxiliary was able to deposit the sum of $260.11 in the Iron Lung Fund To date, one additional contribution has been received. The P.N.G. club of the Kenekah lodge made a five dollar contribution, which brings the Iron Lung Fund to $265.11.

The auxiliary will have a demonstration of the Monaghan portable respirator at the Amvet hall on May 31, 1950 at 8 p.m. This demonstration will be given by David J. Byrnes. The auxiliary is extending a cordial invitation to everyone in this community to attend the demonstration so that people may see and learn of the operation of this equipment and the value it will be to them in time of need.

An iron lung for Dixon and community can be a present reality, not just a future dream. To accomplish this goal, the auxiliary is asking the help of its members and the members of Post 123, as well as for donations of money from those of us who can and wish to give, and above all, the cooperation of our townspeople.

The Amvets auxiliary wishes to make clear the fact that this iron lung will be made available without charge to the user as soon as polio strikes.

A Texas hen laid 304 eggs in 557 days just like a Broadway show season.

We wonder how many people already are saving old paper and rubbish to scatter around picnic grounds.

Men who dislike to break in a new pipe should leave it on the You'll never find opportunity knocking around with other knockers.

Westbrook Pegler

There's going to be an election in California pretty soon and Pegler tells you of some of the candidates.

Senator Sheridan Downey, of California, went to Washington as a ham 'n'egger, beholden to the prevailing lunacy of 1938, which was a combination of Adolf Hitler, Karl Marx and F. D. Roosevelt. He was, of course, a new deal Democrat. About one year ago, Senator Downey confessed that he had turned Republican, although he had not changed his party registration. He had, however, gradually come to agree that the Democratic program, if brought to fulfillment in California, would amount to state confiscation or condemnation of private property, repudiation of debts and even currency, dispossession of the kulak farmers, dictatorship in the guise of benevolent "agencies" and a conquest of his great state by Communists.

All this was inherent in the wild, almost incomprehensible, proposed ham 'n' eggs amendment to the Constitution which had been narrowly defeated in a referendum. It was beaten only by the enormous patriotic exertion of several associations of capitalists who hired Ross Murphy and other forceful press-agents to alarm the listless balance of power.

He Saw the Light

Senator Downey's conversion back to sanity took a long time. This year he has stepped down and the candidates for his place are representative Dick Nixon, Republican, who fought a brilliant, anti-Communist campaign which resulted in the conviction of Alger Hiss; Manchester Boddy, the publisher of the Los Angeles Daily News, and Helen Gahagan, who now represents the fourteenth district in the lower house.

To say that Congresswoman Gahagan is no good for the office is to flatter her. In addition to her inattention to serious duties, she has been a fluttering satellite of the Henry Wallace wing and seems to have neither understanding of issues and measures nor reasoned principles.

She was a carpetbagger, elected under the patronage of the Empress Eleanor to sit for a district where she had no residence. This district is the Harlem of Los Angeles. It is not predominantly colored, but it has more Negroes than any other district in the state. Her appeal for the Negro vote was couched in the patronizing demeanor of the politico-social slummer. She was actually domiciled outside the district in a region which was, for Hollywood, socially de rigueur. Under pressure of publicity, Miss Gahagan affected an address at an apartment within the fourteenth.

Sensual Blandishment

Her real home was offered for sale last year with the sensual blandishment that one of the bedrooms was "totally lined with peach-colored mirrors from the floor to the ceiling." Her husband, Melvin Douglas, in the early stages of the war, was a hero of the home-defense, whose grand headquarters in a commandeered apartment house in Washington were enlivened several times a day by a strange rite. Abruptly, at intervals, the female help whooped into the corridors and the great and gracious lady who now represents the U. S. in the U. N. would lead her slaves in madly jocular routs, skipping hippy-hop and shrilling simple rhymes to the music of a phonograph.

These spectacles so affected the late Ray Clapper, a true-believing keeper of the Holy Icons of the new deal, that he got publicity suck in print. Her husband then figured that if the old girl's antics were silly enough to nauseate a senior lama, he had better lower the boom on her efforts to hearken the home-folks. That was about the time she whipped away to visit Joe Lash in the Pacific.

The leading Negro paper of Los Angeles, and one of the better Negro papers in the country, is the Tribune. Like all the others, however, notwithstanding a steady, subdued glow of intelligence and honor, it is a Jim Crow device relying for its existence on the preservation of the very ills that it complains of. The Tribune, in two successive congressional years, supported Republican Negroes against Gahagan and in so doing gave a convincing canvass of her faults.

Made Excuses

Excusing his membership in the Democratic party, Mr. Boddy is a good American with a record of reasonable opinion, discounted, of course, by the ordinary idiocies of Democratic policy. In California, these days the public gets a bargain when a Democrat is anti-Communist and regards the goofy Gurn letters as the prattle of a fool.

Whereas Miss Gahagan supported Henry Wallace for vice-president in 1944, which would have made him president at Potsdam and Stalin our emperor by now, Mr. Boddy can point the finger of scorn at her for that. He also has the indorsement of Senator Downey, the retiring and repentant undercover Republican. His reputation is a contrast to Wallace's and Claude Pepper's. But for the ironies of old commitment and partisan consistency he would be a left-wing Republican.

California is the vulnerable frontier, exposed and only sketchily defended, where technical equipment and intelligence absolutely vital for the coming war lie exposed awaiting the next Pearl Harbor. The southern part of the state is crawling with the types of traitors who already have given the enemy everything they could steal out of the Roosevelt and Truman vaults.

JACOBY ON CANASTA

Delay First Meld If Pack's Broken

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

"I keep getting the same kind of problem," writes E. W. of New York City. The question is whether or not to meld from my hand when the pack is frozen. For example, the other night I was dealt the following cards, needing 90 points for the initial meld.

Joker-K-K Q-Q-Q 6-6 5-5 4

"My partner was the dealer, and turned up a joker. This froze the pack, of course. He then turned up an ace to cover the joker. Fortunately, the next play he couldn't take the ace. He drew the top card of the undealt pile and discarded an eight.

"The eight was no good to me, so I drew the top card, which was another eight. Now I had to make up my mind. Should I meld the three queens and the kings with the joker? Or should I simply discard, keeping the meld in my hand?

"What is the right play?" If this is my correspondent's worst problem, he is a very lucky man. It's very pleasant to have the count for the initial meld when the pack is born frozen. You may not always want to meld right away, but it's wonderful to have a choice in the matter.

With the sort of hand described I would not make an immediate meld. Mind you, I wouldn't scold anybody who did meld right away. It's just a matter of making things as difficult as possible for the enemy.

If you meld, the player at your right has an easy time discarding to you. He can safely throw a king or a queen, and you won't be able to pick it up. He can even throw an ace, since it is clear that you don't have a pair of aces. (With a pair of aces you would have melded ace-ace-joker instead of a meld of six cards.) With kings, queens, and aces available as safe discards, the player at your right should have no trouble.

See how different it is if you don't meld. The player at your right doesn't know what is safe and what isn't. If he throws a king or a queen, you can take the pack and meld. As it happens, he can safely throw an ace, but he doesn't know that and will never dare try it. With no clue to help him, he may throw a six or a five on the general theory that small cards are safer than high cards. In fact, he is almost sure to throw such a card very soon.

I would hold the meld in my hand until the player at my right had made two or three more discards. If he was still managing to play safe, I would then put the meld down. The idea would be to help my partner by making it unnecessary for him to produce the initial count. All he would need is a pair to match whatever is discarded to him.

Q—My partner made the initial meld with four sixes and a joker. I had three aces in my hand. Could I put down my three sixes together with my partner's four aces, thus making a canasta, and use the joker in some other meld?

No. Once a joker is down on the table in a legal meld, it may not be shifted to any other meld. You may add your own sixes to make the canasta, but the joker must stay put.

Mr Jacoby is unable to answer individual questions on Canasta from readers. However, he will include the most frequently asked questions in his column.

Co-Ops Mess Up New Tax Bill, Charge

Washington, May 26—(AP)—Rep. Mason (R-Ill.) said today house taxwriters have killed chances for a new tax bill by such "inconsistencies" as the rejection of a plan to require cooperatives to pay normal business taxes.

The house ways and means committee late yesterday rejected proposals to make certain now-exempt income of the co-ops subject to regular corporation tax rates.

Political Favoritism

Mason, a committee member, called that action an indication of "political favoritism for co-ops" and said it was just one more sign that "there will be no tax bill this year."

That would sound the death knell for committee-approved cuts in excise taxes totaling $1,050,000,000. The house group is trying to slash excises and raise additional revenue all in one bill.

While it refused to vote new co-op taxes, the committee did vote to pick up an estimated $20,000,000 extra annually by tightening up on taxes due under present law from co-op stockholders and on the patronage dividends received by co-op patrons.

Mason directed his "political favoritism" charge at the committee for its action.

1. Rejecting a proposal to subject to the corporate income tax the unallocated reserves of exempt co-ops.

2. Turning down another proposal to tax the unrelated business income of co-ops. An "unrelated business" was cited by a committee spokesman as such a situation as where a farmers' co-op operates a 10-cent store.

Many Inconsistencies

Mason said this committee action "fills the new tax bill with inconsistencies."

Co-ops usually are made up of farmers, other producers or consumers who seek to save money in marketing or purchasing by joint action, in which they receive rebates or customer dividends from any surplus or funds after expenses of the co-op operation are paid.

Mental Health Act Revision Hits a Snag

Chicago, May 26—(AP)—The Illinois public welfare legislative committee agrees that the state's three mental health laws should be combined, but members don't agree on all the provisions of a proposed new law.

The 18-member committee met yesterday. Chairman William S. Ellis of Lincoln said it will meet again in September to consider the first draft of a revised mental health law. He said it will codify and combine the mental health act of 1945, the epileptics and psychopaths act of 1947, and the mental deficiency act of 1949.

Ellis said the group "found conflict between what is medically desirable and what is legally permissible" in procedures. Some medically desirable procedures, he said, might violate civil rights.

A subcommittee headed by Ellis, Logan county judge and author of the 1945 Mental Health Act, was named to draft a new mental health bill which the full group will study in September. Other subcommittee members are Willard Couch, assistant deputy welfare director, and Don Walker, legal consultant.

The committee was set up by the welfare department last February to draft proposed legislation to present to the 1951 general assembly.

Why Write a Book? Just Sit Down and Compose a Jingle!

By HAL BOYLE

New York—(AP)—Myron Mahler worked his way through college acting as a county fair barker for a trained mule act. He also sold porcupines, corn cures and hair curlers.

By all the while he dreamed of writing the great American novel.

Today, at 36, Myron Mahler is a success. He writes singing commercials for the radio. This talent for turning out musical jingles has helped make him vice-president of an advertising agency.

And who is working about the great American novel? Not Mahler. He is content to have been a pioneer in a bold new art that has swept the United States by "jingles."

"Jingles have permeated the life of America in the last 15 years," said Mahler, a slender, intense man with a scholarly air. "Today there are literally thousands of them on the radio and television."

"The singing commercial is becoming the great American folk music." Children now sing them as if they were popular songs.

Some adults complain singing commercials cause them indigestion, but for a different reason and even handle vague homestead imitations.

"At a party people come up to me sometimes and say, 'I'd like to kill you,'" laughed Mahler. "But they are usually just joking. Often they ask me to sit down at a piano and play my jingles for them."

Two radio stations in the metropolitan area ban singing commercials entirely, but Mahler feels they are going against the trend.

Little writing has become a profession and a number of people make more out of them than the average author does from a novel.

"The pay for a successful jingle may range anywhere from $50 to several thousand dollars," said Mahler. "Two men who wrote a jingle about a soft drink are supposed to have made $25,000 plus royalties from it."

Mahler says the air time of the average singing commercial is about 20 seconds. The only equipment necessary to write them is a stop watch, a sense of rhythm, a small knowledge of music and feel

Federal School Aid Continuance Gets OK

Washington, May 26—(AP)—A continuing program of federal assistance to local school districts overruled by government activities was approved yesterday by the house labor committee.

The committee estimates that more than 600 local districts would be eligible for approximately $30,000,000 a year of federal aid in operating and maintaining overcrowded schools in areas adjoining government installations.

Women Battle For Title of 'Legal Widow'

Chicago, May 26—(AP)—Two women are seeking to prove they are legal widow of William E. Ballantyne, a chain store executive.

Ballantyne was found shot to death Tuesday in the bathroom of his suburban Riverside home. A coroner's jury called his death suicide.

Mrs. Georgia Vickery Ballantyne, 41, who lived with Ballantyne in Riverside for many years, filed a will in Cook county probate court which leaves the bulk of the estate to her.

The will was written four years ago. Mrs. Ballantyne said she married Ballantyne in Tennessee 19 years ago.

In Geneva, Ill., Mrs. Gladys Brodwing Ballantyne, 45, was named administrator of the estate by Probate Judge Harry Daniels. Mrs. Gladys Ballantyne produced a marriage certificate which shows she and Ballantyne were married in Oswego, Kendall county, last Oct. 5.

Attorneys Thomas P. O'Malley and Robert Murphy said Mrs. Gladys Ballantyne lived with Ballantyne at the Aurora hotel in Aurora, Ill., until two weeks ago. It was then, the attorneys said, that the Mrs. Ballantyne in Aurora learned of the Mrs. Ballantyne in Riverside and then filed suit for separate maintenance.

Many Nations Want Point 4 Aid from U.S.

Washington, May 26—(AP)—About 60 countries and dependent areas want to share in the "point four" program of U. S. help provided for in the foreign aid authorization now passed by congress.

State Department officials reported this today, following the senate's 47 to 27 vote of approval for the $3,120,550,000 aid bill.

The vote, late yesterday, gave President Truman his first major victory of the year in the field of foreign policy.

Republican senate leaders fought unsuccessfully to block final action on the bill with an attack on the $25,000,000 point four plan to benefit backward areas of the world with American technical aid.

The senate voted to accept a senate-house conference agreement on the foreign aid measure. This action sent the authorization bill to the White House for Truman's expected signature.

Congress must still act on an appropriations bill supplying the money. In this connection, the Economic Cooperation Administration (ECA), which administers the aid program, reported it would have $27,000,000 left over from the current fiscal year ending June 30. This is $127,000,000 more than had been previously estimated as a carryover.

State Department officials who told of the 60 requests for point four aid noted that the cost of meeting all of them would be several times the $25,000,000 congress authorized.

The department is planning for a prompt start. Assuming the necessary actual appropriation will be voted by June 30, officials said the first project should be under way by the end of the summer.

Governmental Waste Costing Every Family $3.00 a Week

Chicago—The average family in Illinois is paying $163 a year or over $3 a week for waste by the federal government.

These were the figures brought out by the Tax Department of the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce in a leaflet designed to show the taxpayers where and how much they were being taxed, and where waste was occurring. This leaflet, fourth of a series, is titled "Can Your Family Afford It—To Waste $3 Every Week?"

"Spending for unnecessary purposes and spending without receipt of fair value are wasteful spending," the State Chamber declared. "You probably guard against such waste in the case of your individual expenditures. Certainly you do not deliberately throw away $3 every week, even if you can afford to do so. But that is exactly what Congress is doing with your money according to responsible financial experts."

How It Works

It works out like this—the government could curb wasteful spending by $5,100,000 every year. This amounts to some $163 for the average family in Illinois. That's over $3 a week.

The leaflet lists the dozens of taxes collected by the federal government in 1948, and how much

Taxpayers who wished to stop the waste of government funds were urged to communicate with their congressmen. A list of the Illinois Congressional delegation is included in the leaflet, and a card to send these representatives which concludes "I offer no apologies for speaking quite frankly. It's my money that you are kicking around, and I don't like it. Show us prompt results in making some real savings now."

More than 55,000 copies of this series of leaflets on federal spending have been distributed by the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce to date.

Garden Week Nearing End

Illinois Garden Week, which The Garden Club of Illinois is presenting this week, brings together many thousands of lovers of beauty and fine gardening on the garden tours that have been given in Northern Illinois. The first part of the week, the tours centered in the Rock River Valley, including Hazelwood. The last four days of the tour, Saturday, will be at the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schnering, the Curtiss Candy Company Farm, where the herds of famous cattle, the milk farm and the pool where fish are raised commercially will be on view. Mrs. Schnering will open her home, which contains many fine collections of antiques.

Here also, in the Indoor Arena, The Garden Club of Illinois will show a flower show with 50 garden clubs exhibiting in the artistic arrangement classes, and amateur growers from all over northern Illinois showing their choice blooms in the horticultural classes.

SIEMENS-HANZEL WEDDING PARTY—When Jane Siemens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhardt Siemens of Dixon became the bride of John Alan Hanzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hanzel of Poland Road, Danville, at St. Anne's church, Dixon, those pictured above were in the wedding party.

Jane Siemens John Hanzel's Bride in Dixon

A gown of white slipper satin was worn by Jane Siemens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhardt Siemens, 503 Armida street, for her wedding to John Alan Hanzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hanzel, Poland Road, Danville. St. Anne's church, Dixon, was the scene of the May 14th wedding. Fr. Richard French officiated at the 3 p. m. double ring ceremony.

White stock in large baskets decorated the church. Mrs. Byron Chastain was organist and Mrs. John Lahey, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father the bride carried all white carnations and tube roses as her flowers.

Mrs. Russell Kauffman of Champaign, matron of honor, wore a pale green taffeta and marquisette gown and carried yellow Marguerites.

Anne Siemens was her sister's bridesmaid. She wore orchid taffeta and marquisette. Her flowers were like those of the matron of honor.

Robert Erickson, Chicago and Russell Kauffman, Champaign attended the groom. Robert Rector and Stanley Fisher, Champaign ushered.

Both the bride's mother and groom's mother wore navy and had white carnations.

At Colonial Inn a reception was held at the Colonial Inn at 4 p. m. with the Misses Betty Fish and Donna Dogwiler assisting.

When the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, New York and Washington, D. C. the bride was wearing a light grey suit with cocoa brown accessories. They will reside in Paris, Ill.

A graduate of the Dixon high school the bride studied in the Occupational Therapy department at the University of Illinois where she was connected with Phi Mu sorority. A graduate Civil Engineer from the University of Illinois the groom was a member of the Camelot club. He is now employed in the State Highway department in Paris.

Out-of-town guests from Marshall, Ill., Danville, Chicago, Orion, Elmhurst, Bushnell, Rockford and Oregon and St. Louis, Mo. and Davenport, Ia., attended the wedding.

Plum Hollow Women Enjoy Guest Event

Wednesday, May 24, was Guest day at Plum Hollow Country club with 50 women and their guests at the club for golf and cards. The Dixon Country club women were guests of the Plum Hollow women.

At 1:30 dessert was served by the May committee headed by Midge Benoy, chairman. The six tables were arranged with centerpieces of colorful spring flowers.

Bernice Wadsworth had honors for low field score; Carrie Barlow, low putts for the day; Luna Schuman was the winner of the guest prize; Edith Talmadge and Min Meinke tied for Blind Bogey with Min winning the draw; high score prize went to Hazel Legner; high putts to Pearl Kesselring.

low score on No. 6 was a tie between Claire Villiger and Chuck Nelson with Claire winning the cut. Hertha Howard was a winner in Canasta.

Two Ball Foursome
Girls and their husbands are reminded of the two ball foursome scheduled for May 28 at 1:30. There will be a scramble supper at 5:30 at the clubhouse with picnic rules prevailing. Meat, potatoes and coffee will be furnished and the girls are asked to bring their own dishes and a dish to pass.

The mud skipper, a fish of the east Atlantic, climbs trees.

The origin of chocolate is said to date from the day a thirsty Aztec was quenching his thirst by sucking the pulp which surrounds the seeds in the cacao pod. He accidentally threw some cacao seeds into the fire and was surprised at the spicy odor which arose. He tasted it—the full flavor of the bean as we now know it.

Take it out Beyond the BOULEVARDS

That's where the real fun is.

Where the land stretches free to the beckoning horizon, where the air is clear of city smoke and the highway's fumes, where a man and his family can really enjoy the pleasure a car can give.

"But the roads," you say, "—aren't they pretty rough?"

They don't have to be paved to be pleasant. Not to a Buick owner.

For here you've a car gifted with the special gentleness of soft coil springing all around. A car steady-keeled with a massive frame and rigid torque-tube.

A car that quicksteps silkily over washboards and rutty gravel, gives wavy black-top a fluent buoyancy that dresses each mile in rest and relaxation.

Even your mighty power plant—cradled against vibration and filtering its surge through Dynaflo Drive's liquid cushioning if you like—even this is part of the picture.

A part of the special feel of riding in a

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Buick—a feel we do not think is equaled anywhere else on the highway.

But why just go by that? As close as your Buick dealer there's a SPECIAL, a SUPER or a ROADMASTER that's itching to tell its own story—without any obligation on your part.

Go try it—over the boulevards and out beyond them. Then price it. We're sure where you'll spend the summer—having the time of your life in a Buick!

Only BUICK has Dynaflo—and with it goes:

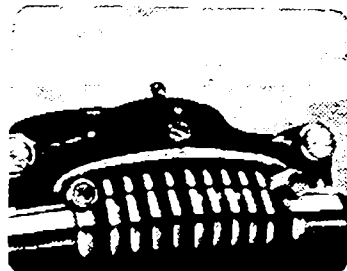

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models.) • NEW PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD fender, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less overall length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher.

Judge Got in Jug Judge Tells Judge He'll Be Judged Later

Indianapolis, May 26—(AP)—Judge Norval K. Harris of the Sullivan county circuit court didn't have to come to Indianapolis today to answer to a charge of public intoxication.
The Sullivan judge telephoned that he was too busy in his own court this morning conducting a hearing. So Judge Joseph M. Howard of the Indianapolis municipal court agreed to continue Judge Harris' case until June 5.
Judge Harris also has charges pending against him in his own court and also in the Indiana Supreme Court.
Officers Robert Akire and Robert Hurst said they arrested the judge yesterday after finding him sitting on a retaining wall next to the sidewalk at the statehouse. He spent five hours in city jail before being released on his own recognizance.
He faces charges of forgery, embezzlement and issuing a fraudulent check in his own court at Sullivan. He also has been charged with indirect contempt of the Indiana Supreme Court in connection with a feud with the Sullivan prosecutor, John K. Purcell.

Chicago C. C. Members Are Guests Here

Several members of the Illinois committee of the Chicago Association of Commerce spent two hours in Dixon at the Elks club house Thursday after having completed an all-day tour of northern Illinois.
The group arrived by bus about 4:30 and remained until 6:50. While in Dixon they were the guests of the directors and members of the activities committee of the Dixon Chamber of Commerce.
The Chicago group represented a number of personalities who are outstanding in their respective circles and included the following:
Arnold Joerns, consultant on business problems in Mexico; Donald F. Abel, of Abel Laboratories, Inc.; Willis T. Albade, Consolidated Press Clippings Bureau; J. Harvey Bond, Dennison Mfg. Co.; Louis A. Bowman, MacLeish, Sprey, Price & Underwood, attorneys; Edward Don of Edward Don & Co., hotel and restaurant supplies; Howard T. East, Public Service Co. of Northern Illinois; Eugene F. Galvin, market engineering associates; Charles Jernigan, C.R.L. & P. Ry.; Charles V. Jewell, Critchell-Miller Insurance agency; Merle Lucas, Commonwealth Edison Co.; Karl E. Madden, The Hoerner Corp.; Fred McManus, attorney; William Moloney, C. B. & Q. Ry. Co.; Robert F. Ober, life insurance; John Ogren, Diamond Products Co.; William G. Olson, Continental Illinois National Bank & Trust Co.; D. G. Payne, C. & N. W. Ry. Co.; Edward P. Roe, Universal Atlas Cement Co.; Raymond Ryder, Rand McNally & Co.; William Snow, Rummel, Rummel & Snow, patent attorneys; Judge Franklin J. Stransky, and Donald Woodman of Shillinglaw, Bolger & Co., investment securities.

Bookmakers Target for Senate Bill

before a race has started. Once the race was started, however, all this information could be printed or broadcast without violating the proposed law.
Violations would call for a $1,000 fine or a one-year prison sentence—or both.
Exempt Big Races
A commerce subcommittee had proposed that such special events as the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness be exempted but the full committee rejected this.
The intent behind the bill is to deny big-time gamblers and bookmakers the advance information they use in their business. But it also would prohibit newspapers and radios from giving pre-race information on the odds, the probable winners, jockey changes, and similar data.

Movie Business in '49 Took a Brodie

Hollywood, May 26—(AP)—Motion picture theatres suffered a 20,000,000 a week attendance drop last year, Film Daily estimates.
The trade paper estimates the average weekly movie attendance in 1949 at 70,000,000, the lowest since 1934. In that year too, the paper figured, 70,000,000 Americans were attending the flickers weekly.

Unitarians Ask U. S. Group Loyalty Survey

Boston, May 26—(AP)—The American Unitarian association today urged President Truman to create a non-partisan committee of distinguished citizens to survey the nation's loyalty problem.
The association's resolution, adopted at its 125th convocation, said the country needs better ways of protecting itself from foreign agents without "besmirching the reputations of innocent persons."
C. C. COMMITTEE MEETS
President Elvar Swanson of the Dixon Chamber of Commerce today called a special meeting of the activities committee for Monday morning at 9:30 in the Chamber offices.

matter of minutes after the collision. Many of their bodies were piled in a charred mass at the rear doors.
Truck Driver Dies
The truck driver perished in the cab of his truck. It was loaded with between 7,000 and 8,000 gallons of gasoline.
Twelve hours after the crash, only 15 of the dead were identified. Many were burned beyond recognition. One was believed to have been the motorman, Paul Manning, 42.
Bear Doors Jam
The conductor escaped by jumping through a rear window. About 15 passengers escaped in the same manner, many of them with clothes ablaze. The rear doors on the street car jammed and the Chicago Transit Authority ordered an investigation.
The crash occurred as the street car, one of the new streamlined cars, moving south in State street, swung, suddenly to the left to enter a switch back siding in a vacant lot on the east side of the street. A flooded underpass at 64th street had made it necessary to reroute the car.
Car, Truck Crash
Witnesses said the car crashed into the northbound truck. Gasoline poured out of the torn sides of the trailers, spilling and spraying over the street car into the street.
A CTA spokesman said the car was moving at a brisk speed when it entered the switch. A flagman said he frantically waved at Motorist Manning that the switch was open—in a position which would change the course of the car. The car continued on and collided with the gasoline truck.
Fire Traveled Fast
One witness—Peter Smudis, 40, a tavern owner near the crash scene—said the fire "was traveling in a series of explosions, spreading so fast that no one could have escaped its path."
"I ran to the telephone but before I could complete a call to the fire department the front window of the tavern cracked under the intense heat and then fell inside." The intense heat blistered billboards 75 feet away. Four or five explosions followed the crash. Witnesses said the flames "jumped around like big balls."
Mrs. Mary Pokorney, 42, a telephone company supervisor and one of the passengers who escaped with minor injuries, said one passenger had shouted a warning "look out" before the crash.
"Then I heard a crash and the car rocked, then righted itself," she said. "I saw people sprawled about the car. There was black smoke everywhere. At first all doors were closed. Then someone got the back door open and I fell out."
Like a Nightmare
Another passenger, Arleen Franzen, 18, said "everyone in the street car was panicky. The screams were horrible. It was like a nightmare."
She said the passengers could not open the rear doors.
"They clawed at them, but they wouldn't open. Finally a colored woman smashed a window with her fist and people crawled through it."
Miss Franzen also escaped through the window.
Other passengers described the frantic efforts of passengers to get out of the burning car. Many were trampled in the aisle and others were killed before they could get to the broken windows.
After the bodies of the victims were removed, police pulled the trolley away from the position in which it had been burned. The floor had burned through and a pile of debris was found in the street.
It contained burned bits of clothing, shoes, and other items, including parts of toys.
Administer Last Rites
The victims' bodies lay in a charred mass under tarpaulins on the sidewalk and priests administered last rites of the church to the group.
Later the bodies were removed to the Cook county morgue where the difficult task of identification was started. Because of the charred condition of the victims and destruction of identifying papers, coroner officials said identification will be slow.
The truck driver was identified as Mel Wilson of Valparaiso, Ind. He was driving a truck owned by Sprout & Davis, Inc. of Whiting, Ind.
Fire Marshal Anthony J. Mulaney estimated damage to property at more than $150,000.
The Red Cross, which set up disaster headquarters near the scene, arranged to care for the homeless.
An inquest into the mass deaths was set for June 1 by Coroner A. L. Brodie. He called the accident "one of the worst tragedies which has hit the city in recent years."

Tomorrow Is Poppy Day Here; Reagan 1st Buyer

Handsomeness Hollywood film star Ronald Reagan who served in the Armed Forces during World War II, pays tribute to war veterans by purchasing the first Buddy Poppy from Doris Day, lovely songstress-actress who was selected VFW National Buddy Poppy Girl for 1950. The red poppies are made by disabled servicemen. Proceeds from the sale are used for their rehabilitation and for the assistance of widows and orphans of deceased veterans.
The poppy sale in Dixon will be conducted Saturday, May 26th.

Britain Wipes Out Gasoline Rationing

London, May 26—(AP)—Britain wiped out gasoline rationing today through a deal ending a long boiling dispute between American oil companies and the British government.
Derationing, effective tomorrow, was made possible because the Standard Oil company of New Jersey and California Texas Oil company agreed to supply oil and take British sterling instead of dollars in payment, the government said. The provision was that Britain would abandon rationing.
The present ration allows the motorist to drive only 90-miles a month.

Robert H. Jacobs Due Home from Far East

Pre Robert H. Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Jacobs, Dixon, Ill., is returning home from leave and re-assignment after a 14-months tour of overseas duty in the Far East. He is presently assigned to the 76th Engineers Construction Battalion, a unit of the Army of Occupation in the Ryukyu command at Okinawa.
Jacobs enlisted for a period of three years in 1945 at Rockford after which he was stationed at Camp Breckenridge, Ky., for basic training. He is a former student of Amboy Township high school.

Nationalists Claim Red Losses Heavy

Taipei, May 26—(AP)—Nationalist reports today said the ill-fated Communist invasion attempt against the Wanshan islands had cost the Reds 3,000 killed out of 7,000 invaders.
Headquarters admitted landings on four of the islands, a small group about 40 miles southwest of British Hong Kong.

Your Assurance
It is generally recognized that the long-established rituals and the appropriate ceremonials of a funeral service should be under the guidance of a thoroughly-qualified organization chosen in advance. You should base your decision on three major points:
1. Is the executive a man of high standing in your community?
2. Has he a complete establishment including competent, fully-trained and experienced people in all departments and has he all necessary equipment?
3. Are all funeral prices plainly marked?
Choose a National Selected Mortician and you may be sure of personnel and service which meet the above conditions.

Judge Dixon Releases Boy From Hospital

such had the sole power to sign the commitment papers.
Mrs. Shumway testified that she sent the boy from St. Louis for a visit to his father in Elgin. She said the boy's father committed the boy to Dixon State hospital as a mental defective and then stopped the payments ordered by a Texas judge.
Husband Lied
Mrs. Shumway told the court that she didn't know the boy was at the state hospital here until about six weeks after the commitment. She said the boy's father told her he was in a school in Danville, "one with movies, a swimming pool, horses, picnic grounds and playgrounds."
Dr. Charles K. Eush, superintendent of the hospital, who named the defendant in the petition, took the stand and said the boy's commitment was void because he was not even a resident of Illinois.
He said he would have released the boy immediately if he had known the youth's father had falsified the commitment papers.

Bakers Remain Idle: Shortage Of Bread Seen sent average wages of $2 cents to $1.22.

The mediator said chain stores have increased bread supplies since the strike started May 14, and "there is no great suffering by the public."
Eds Note: Locally, bread is plentiful. Non-union bakeries in Rockford are trucking in enough loaves to meet Dixon's demand.
"There is talk, however, of an extension of the bread strike, talk which centers on the use of pickets around shops handling non-union bread."
(Presumably, such a move would come under the ban on secondary boycotts in the Taft-Hartley act.)

Grand Detour Services

A program has been planned for a Memorial Day service on May 30 at the church in Grand Detour at 2:30 p.m. The graves of the soldiers will be decorated after the service.

One part of monoxide gas to 10,000 parts of air is enough to prove fatal.

Rubber Stocks Take Strong Rise: TV Weak

New York, May 26—(AP)—A powerful rise in rubber issues contrasted with weakness in radio-television stocks in today's market.
Other major groups leaned a bit lower but declines were mostly fractional. Most of the losses were scored soon after the opening but these were shaded in later dealings.
Goodrich shot ahead more than three points at one time while advances of a point or so were posted for U. S. Rubber and Goodyear.
In the TV division Zenith lost more than three points at one time but later rallied a little. Admiral and Emerson were each a point or so lower and Philco down fractionally.
Also up were General Electric, Santa Fe, Illinois Central, and U. S. Gypsum.

Personals

Mrs. Edgar Crawford is a patient at KSB hospital.
Mrs. Glenn Walden, Miss Anna Davis and Ed Ditzler of Ava, Ill., were in Dixon yesterday due to the serious illness of the ladies' brother, Frank C. Davis, a patient at KSB hospital.
Lt. Walter J. Parker and family are enjoying a two week vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Parker, 301 Spruce street. Lt. Parker served with the 11th Airborne Division overseas during the war and following the war completed six months training at Ft. Riley, Kansas. He was commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. army, May 19, Lt. Parker next will go to Ft. Belvoir, Virginia to study engineering.
Ralph Ruppert of Spokane, Wash., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gallagher and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ruppert, and with other Dixon friends.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to all those who have helped me in any way during my illness.
To Dr. McCall for his unfaltering care. Also Dr. McNichols for services rendered.
To the entire staff at KSB hospital for administering to my needs each time I was a patient there.
To Rev. Salter and Rev. Peugh for spiritual guidance.
To friends who remembered me with visits, cards, letters, flowers and gifts.
And to those who gave freely of their time and services for me and my family.
I thank you much—much more than I can say—for the wonderful goodness of all of you.

Of America's 19,000,000 veterans of all wars and campaigns, nearly 100,000 were in Veterans Administration hospitals at the end of April.

For many thousands of these, the war truly will never end. They are doomed for the remainder of their lives to remain charges of their government—grim reminders of the tragic price of war.

A grateful nation has seen to it that these heroes—some bedfast for life, others destined to spend the rest of their days in wheel chairs or on crutches—get the best of medical care. Modern hospitals and highly trained doctors and nurses see to their physical needs, thanks to the American tradition that it is the obligation of government to "care for him who shall have borne the battle."

Much as it provides in the way of physical care for its sick and disabled war heroes, the government cannot give them the extra comforts they need to make their drab lives more bearable, and to remind them that they are not forgotten. That is an obligation which must be assumed by their grateful fellow citizens as an expression of gratitude for the sacrifices they have made, and in recognition of the patience and forbearance with which they are carrying the burden of their handicaps.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars has gladly met this challenge by lending a helping hand in their battle against doubt, boredom, bitterness, and despair. In addition, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, through its service officers in every community, makes sure that the dependents of hospitalized veterans are cared for.

When you are asked to buy a Buddy Poppy, remember that every penny contributed by the American people in this campaign will be spent during the next twelve months for veteran welfare work exclusively. Most of what you give for a Buddy Poppy will be spent right here in our own community—for the benefit of our own needy veterans and their dependents.

The contribution you make through the purchase of a Buddy Poppy will be spent strictly for these patriotic purposes:

- For the aid, relief and comfort of disabled and needy veterans, their dependents, or their widows and orphans.
- For maintenance or expansion of the V.F.W. National Home for widows and orphans of veterans at Eaton Rapids, Michigan.
- For hospital or individual assistance and entertainment for needy veterans and service patients, and their dependents.
- For rehabilitation, welfare and service work, including liaison service with the Veterans Administration.
- For necessary expenses for military funerals of deceased veterans.
- For acquisition, improvement and maintenance of burial plots and the decoration of graves of veterans and servicemen.
